The Old Pickle House

The Old Pickle House, Oven Wynd Offers Over £275,000

Kelso, TD5 7HS

Set on a charming cobbled street positioned just off the vibrant square of Kelso, the Old Pickle House is a beautifully converted townhouse offering stylish accommodation ideal as either a main residence or enviable second home

OLD PICKLE HOUSE

Oven Wynd is a traditional street off the market square which benefits no through traffic and a fantastic central position; round the corner there are a choice of shops, amenities and transport links, as well as being set a stone's throw from the glorious River Tweed and countryside walks. The main door entrance opens to a useful utility area with a shower room and storage space – perfect for muddy boots and fishing rods! With a stair extending to the main living area on the first floor, the open plan public room allows space for both lounge and dining furnishings with a bespoke dining bench great for entertaining and a bright double aspect. The kitchen sits across the hallway and is fully fitted with cabinetry and appliances, with the upper level extending to three comfortable bedrooms and a family bathroom. A pull down loft ladder extends to a decked roof terrace – a super space for an al fresco day.

LOCATION

Kelso, which lies at the meeting point of the Tweed and Teviot rivers, is one of the most attractive and unspoiled towns in the Borders. Notable features are the 12th Century Abbey, the Flemish style cobbled square, Floors Castle and the old bridge across the Tweed. The town has good educational and sporting facilities and many quality shops. The area has much to offer those interested in country pursuits with fishing on the Tweed and is an increasingly sought after location within the Borders.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Excellent location for the town
- Quiet cobbled street off the square
- Beautifully renovated building
- Well established holiday let
