About the Property

Located in the popular town of Haddington, this 3-storey detached family home offers a fantastic property within commuting distance to Edinburgh.

Constructed by Robertson Homes, the property occupies a desirable semi-rural setting, offering privacy from neighboring homes and benefiting from uninterrupted open views. The accommodation offers open-plan living downstairs with generous bedrooms and a self-contained principal suite occupying the upper level, with a double bedroom, separate shower room and dressing room.

This attractive home benefits from a desirable south-west facing rear garden. To the front, the property provides a driveway and integral garage, alongside a neatly presented front garden area.

Further benefits include gas central heating and double glazing.

Management

The shared landscaped grounds are maintained by SGPM, with associated costs typically ranging between £25 and £40 per quarter.

Extras

All fitted floor coverings, curtain poles, blinds, double oven, hob, extractor hood, fridge/freezer, dishwasher and washing machine are included in the sale price.

📍 Location

The historic town of Haddington, East Lothian offers a vibrant High Street, a range of shops, cafés, restaurants and bars, and a strong community feel. Well placed for commuting, it provides easy access to Edinburgh via the A1 (approximately 30 minutes by car), with rail links at Drem railway station and Longniddry railway station, as well as regular bus services.

Surrounded by attractive countryside and close to East Lothian's renowned coastline and golf courses, the town also benefits from scenic walks along the River Tyne. Local amenities include a golf course and sports centre with swimming pool.

Schooling is well regarded, with primary schools and Knox Academy, while private options include Loretto School and schools in Edinburgh.
