Offers Over £395,000

This sizeable town
centre period home
dates as far back as the mid 1600's and boasts
an extensive hidden gem
of a garden to the rear

Set in the heart of Duns, with all local amenities within walking distance, this charming period home, which is believed to date from the mid 1600's, offers a rare and unique combination of town convenience with an abundance of space, in particular the garden which is of a size more commonly associated with country homes.

The extensive rear garden truly is a hidden gem, which from initial impressions you would never have known existed. With a partially walled surround creating a charming backdrop this garden has been lovingly and thoughtfully landscaped by the current owners for over 30 years. Beautifully established to provide colour and interest throughout the year, including a productive vegetable plots, wildlife section and fruit orchard not to mention a number of well positioned seating areas a garden pond – perfect for frog watching. A range of useful outbuildings add further convenience and great external storage.

Internally the property extends over three floors and provides a versatile layout, ideally suited to the demands of modern family life. A traditional tiled entrance hall gives way to a sociable family dining kitchen; a great space for families to gather with ample room for dining and informal lounging. Dual aspects windows ensure good light with the rear window framing a colourful outlook over the garden perfectly. Over the hall lies a ground floor double bedroom; a well proportioned room with walk in closet and the advantage of a useful ensuite facility.

At first floor level lies the drawing room; a traditional space with outlooks over the town; a lovely relaxed space ideal for retiring to on an evening. The large master bedroom benefits from excellent built in storage and lies conveniently next to the family bathroom and additional cloakroom

The second floor hosts three further bedrooms, all of which benefit from south facing dormer windows commanding a super roof top view towards The Cheviots.
