Description

The ground floor comprises a welcoming hallway with useful storage and a convenient WC, a bright lounge/dining room with a door opening onto the rear garden, creating a lovely connection between the indoor and outdoor spaces, and a modern kitchen fitted with a range of wall and base units with co-ordinated worktops. Carpeted stairs lead to the first floor, where there are three bedrooms, one with built in wardrobes, and a family bathroom fitted with a crisp white suite and shower over the bath. The property further benefits from gas central heating and double glazing.

Extras

Included in the sale will be the gas hob and electric oven, fridge/freezer, washing machine and dishwasher.

Gardens and Parking

To the rear is a fully enclosed south facing garden, laid to lawn with a patio area, providing a lovely space to relax, dine and enjoy the warmer months. There is ample on street parking available.

Factoring

The common grounds around the development are maintained by Hacking & Paterson at a cost of approximately £80 per quarter.

Location

Little France is a well-connected suburb on the southern edge of Edinburgh, best known as the location of the city's Royal Infirmary. The area offers a wide selection of local amenities, with larger retail destinations such as Cameron Toll, Fort Kinnaird, and Straiton Retail Park – home to major outlets including Marks & Spencer and Sainsbury's, all within easy reach. Neighbouring Newington provides additional dining, leisure, and cultural attractions. Families are well catered for with schooling from nursery through to secondary level. For fitness and recreation, David Lloyd Shawfair is just a short drive away. Regular bus services connect the area to the city centre and beyond, while the nearby city bypass ensures quick access to surrounding districts, Edinburgh Airport, and the wider motorway network.
