LOCATION

Stewart Crescent is a residential no-through road situated in Currie, a sought after area southwest of Edinburgh. There are local amenities located nearby on Lanark Road West, including shops and takeaways, whilst a wider selection of amenities are also to be found in nearby Balerno village. Both Hermiston Gait and South Gale retail parks are within reach and offer a wider array of shopping options. The Water Of Leith Walkway is not too far away and offers a green, traffic free corridor into the city, or up into The Pentlands Hills Regional Park. Curriehill Station is just under a mile away and offers links to both Edinburgh and Glasgow city centres. Regular buses run along Lanark Road West offering another route into the city, whilst motorists can gain swift access to the City Bypass at Clovenstone or Calder junctions, and from there to the M8, M9 and Queensferry Crossing. Currie Community High School is less than 0.5 miles away.
