Tweedford House

Abbotsford Grove, Kelso, TD5 7BN

Offers Over £250,000

Charming two-bedroom upper-floor apartment in a converted Victorian sandstone villa, beautifully positioned on the banks of the River Tweed. Bright and spacious throughout, with lovely river views, private courtyard, garage and excellent access to the town centre.

Tweedford is a charming upper-floor apartment forming part of a converted Victorian sandstone villa, enviably positioned at the foot of Abbotsford Grove on the banks of the River Tweed. Properties in such a beautiful riverside setting rarely come to the market, while the location also offers the convenience of being within easy walking distance of the town centre.

The property is presented in good condition throughout and offers bright, spacious accommodation with a wealth of traditional character. The generous living room is filled with natural light and features a beautiful bay window, taking full advantage of the lovely views towards the River Tweed. The well-appointed kitchen incorporates a small dining area, while there are two good-sized double bedrooms, a family bathroom and a separate shower room. The accommodation is well proportioned throughout, offering a comfortable and versatile home. Externally, Tweedford benefits from its own private, paved courtyard which provides a low-maintenance and wonderfully sheltered sun trap — an ideal space for enjoying the peaceful surroundings. The property also has the valuable benefit of its own garage. With its attractive traditional features, lovely riverside setting, private courtyard and excellent proximity to the town centre, Tweedford represents a particularly appealing opportunity to acquire a characterful home in a rarely available location.

LOCATION

Kelso is a vibrant and historic Borders town proudly positioned at the confluence of the Rivers Tweed and Teviot. Long regarded as one of the most attractive and unspoiled towns in the region, Kelso has become an increasingly popular choice for homebuyers, offering a blend of heritage, lifestyle, and modern convenience. • Amenities: The town centres around its distinctive Flemish-style cobbled square, home to artisan shops, independent retailers, cafés, and services. Kelso benefits from excellent leisure and beauty facilities, supermarkets, and a broad range of mainstream amenities. The town's rich history is reflected in landmarks such as Floors Castle and the remains of its notable Augustan Abbey, contributing to a thriving visitor and holiday trade. • Schooling: Kelso is exceptionally well served for education, with a modern primary school and a state-of-the-art secondary school offering high-quality facilities for local families. • Population: As one of the Borders' most sought-after towns, Kelso has a welcoming and active community of around 7000, supported by a wide variety of clubs, events, and cultural and sporting activities. • Transport Connections: The town enjoys excellent road links to neighbouring Border towns and is commutable to Edinburgh. Rail connections are easily accessed via Berwick-upon-Tweed on the East Coast Main Line. The surrounding countryside provides endless walking routes, trails, and outdoor pursuits, including fishing on the River Tweed, making Kelso a clear favourite for those seeking both lifestyle and connectivity.
