Location

Situated to the north of the city, the leafy and exclusive suburb of Trinity is a highly desirable residential area, characterised by a combination of period, traditional and modern architecture. Situated less than two miles from the centre of Edinburgh next to the Firth of Forth, the immediate area offers a broad selection of local amenities. These are supplemented by extensive shopping facilities at nearby Craigleith Retail Park, which hosts a range of high street retailers and supermarkets. Ocean Terminal in Leith also caters for shoppers, as well as cinema-goers and gym-goers. Additional amenities can be found in Trinity's neighbouring districts, which include the historic Newhaven harbour and the fashionable Shore, complete with Michelin star establishments and stylish bars. Trinity, with its extensive network of cycle paths and walkways, is ideal for those who enjoy the outdoors. Delightful green areas include the leafy Victoria Park with the Royal Botanic Gardens nearby. Meanwhile, the Firth of Forth waterfront and Water of Leith Walkway cater for those who prefer a river and shore backdrop. Regular bus services allow quick travel throughout the city as well as the newly opened tram link offering swift access to the airport. The Queensferry Crossing, Edinburgh City Bypass and M8/M9 motorway network are easily accessible for those going further afield.
