Description

Enjoying a particularly appealing setting, the property provides a wonderful balance of village tranquillity and everyday convenience, with a selection of local amenities close at hand and excellent public transport links providing easy access to Edinburgh City Centre and beyond. The surrounding area is renowned for its picturesque atmosphere, leafy walks and proximity to the Water of Leith, creating an idyllic backdrop to this lovely home.

The accommodation retains a wealth of charming period features, including a beautiful period fireplace with working fire, traditional sanded timber internal doors and a useful press cupboard, whilst benefiting from a number of upgrades designed to enhance modern-day comfort and efficiency. These include replacement double glazed windows, an upgraded smart heating control system, additional insulation to the kitchen and bedroom and updated interlinked smoke and heat detectors. The attic has also been extensively floored, accessed via Ramsay ladder, providing excellent additional storage, further enhancing the practicality of the property.

Accessed is via an inviting L-shaped entrance hallway, with a laundry pulley and hatch providing access to the attic. The charming, dual-aspect reception room, enjoys plenty of natural light and outlook over the communal garden, whilst retaining its period fireplace with fully working fire, creating an attractive focal point and a cosy ambience. The modern kitchen is accessed directly from the reception room and also benefits from a dual aspect, providing a bright and practical space. Fitted with a range of wall and base units, the kitchen incorporates a built-in gas hob, electric oven and extractor hood, together with an integrated fridge freezer. The generous front-facing double bedroom has a useful shelved press cupboard. Completing the accommodation is a modern shower room fitted with a white three-piece suite, incorporating a bath with mains-powered luxury rainfall shower over. Further benefits include gas central heating, served by a combi boiler, replacement double-glazed windows and excellent attic storage.

Extras

The fitted floor coverings and light fittings will be included in the sale together with the built-in gas hob, electric oven, hood and integrated fridge freezer.

Externally

There is a sizeable communal garden located to the rear of the building with an expanse of lawn with small seating area. In addition, there is a private external store. For the car owner, unrestricted parking is available within the street.

Location

Spylaw Street forms part of the highly regarded residential district of Colinton, a picturesque and historic area known for its village charm and attractive surroundings. Conveniently positioned for access to the City of Edinburgh Bypass linking the main Scottish motorway network system and Edinburgh International Airport, the location is ideal for commuters. Excellent public transport provides frequent access to the City Centre and surrounding districts, with a direct bus service to the airport and journey times of around 10 minutes into the city centre. Many local amenities can be found in Colinton Village, with further shopping available at the nearby Gyle Shopping Centre and Hermiston Gait. The area is well placed for the outdoor enthusiast and the property is within close proximity to the spectacular Pentland Hills Regional Park and Bonaly Country Park. The tranquillity of the Water of Leith and nearby Colinton Dell are also on hand, offering a mixture of mature woodland where delightful walks and cycles can be enjoyed. Schooling is well-catered for from nursery to secondary level in both the public and private sectors, and the Edinburgh Napier University campuses are a short drive away.
