Welcome

This well-proportioned ground floor flat offers bright, versatile accommodation in Dunfermline, ideal for first time buyers, downsizers, or investors. An impressive 17-foot living room with a bay window forms the heart of the home, flowing through to a well-equipped fitted kitchen with ample storage and worktop space. Both bedrooms are generous doubles, each benefiting from built-in wardrobes, with the principal bedroom further enjoying its own en-suite shower room. A family bathroom with a bath completes the accommodation, along with useful storage cupboards off the hall. Located in Dunfermline, the property is well placed for local schools, amenities, and transport links, making it an excellent choice for first time buyers or those seeking a low-maintenance, ground floor home.

EXTRAS INC. IN SALE/AGENTS NOTE

All floorcoverings, blinds, bathroom and light fittings together with integrated appliances.

From 1st February 2022, residential properties in Scotland are required by law to have installed a system of inter-linked smoke alarms, carbon monoxide detectors and heat detectors (the "inter-linked system"). No warranty is given that any interlinked system has been installed in this property and interested parties should make their own enquiries.

Dunfermline

The ancient capital of Dunfermline won its bid to have official status city in May 2022, as part of the civic honour's competition to celebrate the Queen's platinum jubilee. The City of Dunfermline is of considerable historic interest and is the resting place of King Robert the Bruce. Carnegie's Birthplace museum, the Abbey and Abbot House reflect the historic interest of the city, whilst recent developments have seen Dunfermline move into the modern era with Carnegie Museum and Library. Dunfermline is located approximately five miles from the Forth bridges and is therefore particularly popular with commuters to Edinburgh and many parts of the central belt with easy access to the M90 motorway with its direct links to Edinburgh, Perth and Dundee and across the Kincardine Bridge by way of motorways to Stirling, Glasgow and the West. It benefits from a full range of shops, social and leisure facilities and educational establishments. The local railway stations provide a regular service to Edinburgh with intercity links to other parts of the UK. There are regular and convenient bus services both local and national.
