Welcome

This well-presented three-bedroom home offers approximately 792 square feet of accommodation across two floors in Dunfermline, ideal for first time buyers and small families. The ground floor comprises a bright 15-foot lounge, providing a welcoming space for relaxing and entertaining, along with a kitchen/dining room with sliding doors opening to the garden, perfect for everyday living and outdoor dining. A useful store room adds further practicality. Upstairs, three bedrooms are served by a family bathroom with a bath, with the principal bedroom further benefiting from its own en-suite shower room. A convenient storage cupboard on the landing completes the accommodation. There are private well maintained gardens to the front and rear with double driveway to the front and additional driveway to the side providing excellent parking. Located in Dunfermline, the property is well placed for local schools, amenities, and transport links, making it an excellent choice for first time buyers or small families seeking a well-presented home.

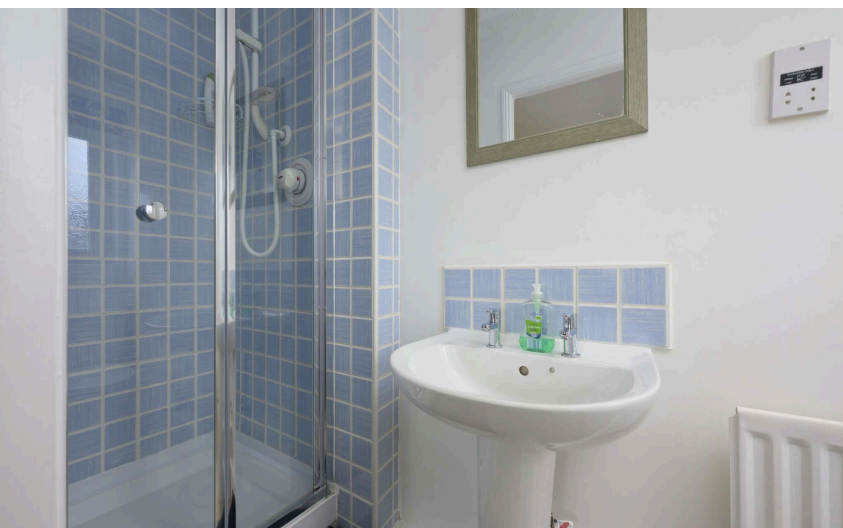

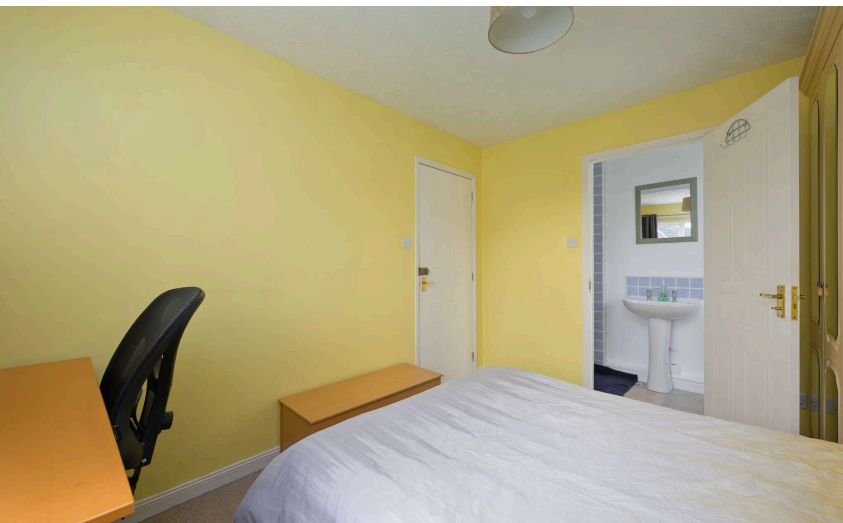

EXTRAS INC. IN SALE/AGENTS NOTE

All floorcoverings, blinds, bathroom and light fittings together with integrated appliances.

From 1st February 2022, residential properties in Scotland are required by law to have installed a system of inter-linked smoke alarms, carbon monoxide detectors and heat detectors (the "inter-linked system"). No warranty is given that any interlinked system has been installed in this property and interested parties should make their own enquiries.

Dunfermline

The ancient capital of Dunfermline won its bid to have official status city in May 2022, as part of the civic honour's competition to celebrate the Queen's platinum jubilee. The City of Dunfermline is of considerable historic interest and is the resting place of King Robert the Bruce. Carnegie's Birthplace museum, the Abbey and Abbot House reflect the historic interest of the city, whilst recent developments have seen Dunfermline move into the modern era with Carnegie Museum and Library. Dunfermline is located approximately five miles from the Forth bridges and is therefore particularly popular with commuters to Edinburgh and many parts of the central belt with easy access to the M90 motorway with its direct links to Edinburgh, Perth and Dundee and across the Kincardine Bridge by way of motorways to Stirling, Glasgow and the West. It benefits from a full range of shops, social and leisure facilities and educational establishments. The local railway stations provide a regular service to Edinburgh with intercity links to other parts of the UK. There are regular and convenient bus services both local and national.
